Terranueva joins the Quebec Cannabis Industry Association as a founding member

L'Assomption, QC - Terranueva Corporation (CSE: TEQ) ("Terranueva" or the "Corporation") is pleased to announce that it is joining the Quebec Cannabis Industry Association (QCIA) as Founding Member. By taking an active role on the QCIA Board of Directors, Terranueva shows it is fully committed to a strong cannabis industry for Quebec.

"Our participation in the QCIA as a founding member fits well with our mission to produce cannabis with the highest standards in terms of efficiency, quality and stability. Indeed, one of the objectives of the QCIA is to contribute constructively and responsibly to the development of the industry, particularly by supporting the public health and safety objectives targeted by the legalization of cannabis, namely the reduction of the harms associated with the consumption through the supply of quality products subject to rigorous controls" explains Pierre Ayotte, President and CEO of Terranueva

About Terranueva :

Terranueva relies on research and development and operational efficiency to become a key player in the emerging cannabis industry. It aims to provide the Canadian and international markets with first-rate medicinal and recreational cannabis.

Terranueva Pharma Corporation, its wholly owned subsidiary, holds the necessary licenses from Health Canada to meet its mission. Operating in L'Assomption (Quebec), its mission is to produce cannabis with the highest standards in terms of efficiency, quality and stability. To achieve its goal, Terranueva Pharma is implementing a modular production approach, integrating the latest advances and innovations in process automation.
